

Lauren Ferraro is a fourth-year evening law student at the Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law. She currently serves as the Vice President of the Securities Law Students Association. She is also a member of the Compliance, Investigations, and Corporate Responsibility Program at the law school. Last year, she and her teammates represented the law school in the Kaufman Securities Law Moot Court Competition. This year, she will help coach CUA's team. She has interned with the Securities and Exchange Commission with the Division of Enforcement's Office of Market Intelligence. Lauren continued her work in compliance by serving as an auditor for the Treasury Inspector General of the Tax Administration. Currently, Lauren is interning with the Office of the General Counsel for Department of Defense, Office of Inspector General.